

Paul Buono

Pianist Paul Buono easily transitions from American Songbook favorites (Cole Porter, Gershwin, Rogers & Hart) to R&B, pop & soul. He began his musical studies as a classical pianist, transitioning later into jazz and pop and has performed with Wynton Marsalis, Antonio Hart, and Lage Lund among others. Paul also served as a Musical Director for the Princess and Cunard Cruise Lines, as well as for various artists appearing on the NBC's "The Voice," including the "OverExposed World Tour" with Javier Colon and Maroon 5.
