

Carlos Odria

Peruvian-born guitarist Carlos Odria has been described as a “breathtakingly talented musician...with an immense technical skill” (Worcester Telegram) and as a “guitar wizard” (Gamble Rogers Fest). His original compositions and arrangements of jazz standards and Latin American tunes deliver an exciting blend of international styles such as Bossanova, Afro-Peruvian festejo, rumba flamenco, and Afro-Caribbean vibes with an improvisational approach inspired by the rich tradition of American jazz.
