

Ryan Brown

Born into a musical family, Ryan Brown began playing piano as a child. A consummate musician, his approach to music reflects his experience across a myriad of piano styles—soul/R&B, jazz, and pop/rock. Ryan’s extensive experience in the heady nightlife of the New England music scene has earned him a place on the national stage with some of the world’s most prestigious musicians. The pianist has performed on stages from the United States to Europe and beyond, lending his services to artists and shows such as B.B. King, Ernie Fields, Jr., Fred Wesley, Dorothy Norwood, Rickey Minor, Lennon Awards, Boston Music Awards, the BET Walk of Fame, the Tulsa Jazz & Blues Heritage Festival, Japan’s Himeji Festival, and more.

