

The Bridge Collective Ensemble

The Bridge Collective Ensemble (formerly Anima Strings) is a fabulous group of talented, stylish, conservatory-trained musicians, exclusively presented by Music Management and under the leadership of Violinist Tara Novak & Violist Christopher Nunn, both exceptional and well-respected musicians. The ensemble offers a wide array of smartly crafted musical arrangements guaranteed to resonate with a multi-generational audience; the group is equally sophisticated and fun, with numerous high-profile celebrity events, including a White House appearance. This group is a tremendous fit for private events and corporate entertainment.

